

Dinner May 22 in Centennial Park

Please join your neighbors for a potluck dinner on Sunday, May 22 at 3:30 in Centennial Park. The Historic Centennial Neighborhood Association will supply free beef hotdogs and drinks. We will also have free popcorn. Please bring a dish to share.

Newsletter to Feature Good Neighbors

Our Fall issue of the Historic Centennial Neighborhood will feature a "Good Neighbor" section. We want to feature people who help make our neighborhood a better place to live. Perhaps it could be someone picking up trash in the alley, cleaning up after his or her dog, playing with a child at the park, or painting a neighbor's fence. This summer, members of the Centennial Board will be watching for examples of good neighbors in our neighborhood. When we find them, we will take a photo and write a paragraph about the person or people pictured for our fall issue. If you would like to suggest someone you know of, please call Barbara Dixon at 420-0544.

Janice Alford, 1930-2005.

Janice Alford, innkeeper of the Loeb House Inn, passed away recently. Jan's son is Dick Nagel, owner of the bed and breakfast on Cincinnati Street and board member and treasurer of the Historic Centennial Neighborhood Association.

"We will miss her warm smile," said Phyllis Hunt, HCNA president. "She had a great personality that was enjoyed by the Loeb House guests. She was loved by many. Her friends enjoyed playing tricks on her and she delighted in getting even with them."

HCNA appreciates Lafayette Neighborhood Housing Services, Inc. for their assistance duplicating this newsletter.

Association Pushing Hollyhocks

In June of 2006 Historic Centennial Neighborhood would like to sponsor a Hollyhocks and Houses day in our neighborhood. Are you willing to plant hollyhocks in your yard? If so, please purchase a packet and plant them. If you would like a seedling or two, please contact Doug Reed at 317-457-9824.

Outreach Director Supports Neighborhood

Glenda McClatchey, the Community Outreach Director of Lafayette Neighborhood Housing Services (LNHS) is on our side in the fight to improve our neighborhood. Glenda, who has worked at LNHS for about a year, works on outreach activities and facilitates cooperative working relationships with neighborhoods and LNHS staff. Glenda has been regularly attending HCN Board meetings, and she plans to be at the May 22 potluck, where she would love to meet people in the neighborhood.

Glenda enjoys her job at LNHS, particularly opportunities to interact with lots of different people. She would love to show you the new offices in Jefferson Centre at the Corner of 9th and Cincinnati, so feel free to stop by and take a tour of their great new facilities Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 5:00. She wants to connect with the community, and is also happy to take calls at 423-1284.

Glenda lives in community. In fact, she became connected with LNHS when she bought one of the show homes. She has two sons: one is at IU, and another is at Jeff. She is happy to report that she has been married for almost 31 years. Her hobbies are gardening, reading, and lying on the beach (but she admits this is a hard hobby to practice while living in central Indiana! Please call Glenda if you have questions about LNHS, would like to tour the new LNHS facilities, or to see if you might qualify for LNHS housing.

Spring 2005

Appreciation is given to the following members for their financial support by joining the Historic Centennial Neighborhood Association. It is their believing in the future of the neighborhood, and the efforts currently underway for neighborhood revitalization that makes them so wonderful! For questions concerning membership status, please contact Barbara Dixon, 420-0544, or Phyllis Hunt, 742-6704. Thanks!
