

Hollyhock Festival on Saturday, June 15 11 am - 2 pm

Be sure to come to the Hollyhock Festival on Saturday, June 15 to get to know your neighbors and enjoy sandwiches, soda, games for children, a coloring contest, ice cream, and live music provided by J.T. Hickman.

Since 1983, Historic Centennial Neighborhood has been on the National Register of Historic Places. If you haven't taken a walking tour of the neighborhood to see the beautiful homes, places of worship, and other structures that have received the Wabash Valley Trust Plaques, come on the 15th and get a free brochure that can direct you to each location.

Tunnel Extension Completed

Brad Talley, Superintendent of Water Pollution Control in Lafayette, reports that The Cincinnati Street Conveyance Tunnel Extension has been completed. The tunnel project was part of a 20 year plan with the State of Indiana to reduce the combined sewer overflows in the City of Lafayette, which has greatly reduced the amount of raw sewage entering the Wabash River when it rains.

Be kind: Water your trees

The weather may be hot and dry again this summer, so be kind to your trees! Trees need about 10 gallons of water per inch of trunk diameter. During a drought, trees need to be watered about three times a month. Some symptoms of "drought stress" are wilting leaves, curling leaves, and yellowing leaves. Be proactive – and remember the trees between the sidewalk and the street!

CityBus Transfer Station

Construction is underway at Third and North Streets for a new CityBus Transfer Center. When it is completed there will be specific spots to catch the bus for each route. There will also be a lobby and sheltered spots to wait for transportation. CityBus predicts that construction will be completed by the end of the summer.

North Street Construction

The North Street stormwater project will prevent up to 80% of runoff from entering the sewer system. The bricks are being replaced with porous brick pavers. There is a sinkhole at 10th and Ferry that needs to be repaired, so the intersection will close after June 3. The city is waiting for funding to finish the remaining phase of the project.

Michael and Phyllis Hunt celebrate at the Midwest Rentals site. The buildings will be demolished in June, and planned townhomes will be built as soon as a developer can be found.

New Neighbors on Fifth Street

Lindsey Payne and Mark Haugen recently moved in on Fifth Street.

Lindsey Payne and Mark Haugen came to Lafayette to pursue their educational goals. Mark completed his masters degree in education, and is currently working on his PhD in second language studies. Lindsey completed her masters degree in Ecological (continued on next page)

Sciences and Engineering (ESE) and is working on her PhD in ESE focusing on transdisciplinary knowledge in the framework of sustainability.

They like living downtown, especially since bicycles are their method of transportation. They like being close to campus, downtown--and the Murdoch Park Disc Golf course is also just a short ride away! They also enjoy having the Wabash River in their backyard and enjoy kayaking!

They are happy to be in a neighborhood that is making an effort to create a sustainable close-knit community.

Lindsey and Mark love to travel. Last summer they spent six weeks backpacking South America. The highlights were hiking to Machu Picchu and seeing a massive humpback whale continuously breach alongside our boat! Lindsey is also very engaged in the community volunteering for the Wabash River Enhancement Corporation (WREC), Clear-Blue-Green Business Program, and Go Greener.

Welcome, Lindsey and Mark!

Be a good neighbor – scoop your poop!

Neighborhood residents Cate and Derek announce their engagement at the Midwest Rentals Demolition Party on May 25.
